

The American Presidency and Executive Branch
Fall 2023

Course Evaluation:

Midterm Exams (30%):

We will have two midterm exams (worth 15 percent each) this semester taken during course hours. Midterms are open-book/open note and conducted through canvas.

Makeups for the midterm exam are only granted for a valid excuse (e.g. illness, a death in the family, or a religious holiday.)

Final Exam (20%):

Monday, December 18, 4:30-7:00pm

Honor Code:

All students enrolled in a University of Colorado Boulder course are responsible for knowing and adhering to the Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code may include but are not limited to: plagiarism (including use of paper writing services or technology [such as essay bots]), cheating, fabrication, lying, bribery, threat, unauthorized access to academic materials, clicker fraud, submitting the same or similar work in more than one course without permission from all course instructors involved, and aiding academic dishonesty.

Artificial Intelligence language models, including ChatGPT, cannot be used for any course assignments. Using artificial intelligence language models to complete assignments, even if only for part of an assignment, is considered plagiarism and will result in a zero for the assignment.

All incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution: honor@colorado.edu, 303-492-5550. Students found responsible for violating the Honor Code will be assigned resolution outcomes from the Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution as well as be subject to academic sanctions from the faculty member. Visit Honor Code for more information on the academic integrity policy.

Please note that we cannot discuss your course grade via email. If you have questions about your grade, please come to my office hours.

Communication:

It is important to be proactive about contacting your instructor if you have any questions or are experiencing any issues. I will use email as the primary means of communication. Be sure to respond within 48 hours, please resend your message. If you have a legitimate excuse and need an accommodation for class assignments or exams, you must inform me in advance. Unless an alternative arrangement has been made in advance, late assignments will not be accepted.

Remember if you miss class or an assignment deadline due to illness, family/personal emergency, or religious observance to please let me know as soon as possible (within 1 week) if not ahead of time.

Classroom Behavior:

Please arrive at course lectures on time to ensure minimal disruptions. We will be using canvas for this course during almost every lecture. This will require that students always bring a laptop. However, keep in mind that laptops can be distracting; therefore, refrain from web-surfing. Please put cell phones away and on silent except for emergencies.

Please remember to be respectful to your instructor and your fellow students while in recitation.

opinions. During these times, focus your criticisms on the substance of these ideas/statements, not the person speaking.
